Last Updated: 1 April 2019

Schools and students may appeal against decisions concerning aspects of the award of the Higher School Certificate and Record of School Achievement on a number of bases. These may be summarised as follows:

- a. student appeals against 'N' determinations for non-completion of particular courses
- b. student appeals against assessment rankings in HSC courses
- c. student appeals against the withholding of Higher School Certificate and Record of School Achievement credentials by NESAs.
